

KING EDWARD ON SOIL OF FRANCE

His Visit a Response to Germany's Attitude Towards Morocco.

EXCHANGE OF CONFIDENCES

The Meeting Had Far Less of Reserve Than That a Year Ago.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, April 6.—The arrival of King Edward in Paris to-day was the occasion for a notable manifestation of Anglo-French cordiality, which is being generally interpreted to-night as a conspicuous response to Germany's attitude regarding Morocco, although the King remained but a short time. He was met outside the city by President Loubet, who held a private conversation with His Majesty, lasting nearly an hour.

The details of the conversation excite a wide range of speculation, but its actual purport has not been disclosed. However, a semi-official communication recites that the meeting had far less reserve than that between King Edward and President Loubet last year, and that it was marked by the freedom of the confidences exchanged.

No Significant Utterance.

Beyond this private conversation, King Edward confined himself to the usual public expressions of goodwill. He spoke at the station of the pleasure a visit to France always gave him; but there was not the slightest public utterance having significance upon pending political affairs. In this respect the King's reserve is being compared with the freedom of Emperor William's recent visit. The passage of the King was unattended by any spectacular features, as it was the earnest wish of the authorities to avoid a political demonstration. President Loubet joined the royal train at Pierrefitte station, where, surrounded by distinguished officials of both governments, the two rulers exchanged their first greetings. The King conducted President Loubet to his private car where conversation continued until the Lyons railway station was reached.

No Military Display.

Outside the station the crowd was held back by cord of a police, the absence of military display being noticeable. During the half hour at the station King Edward continued to talk with President Loubet and held an extended conference with the British Ambassador at Paris, Sir Francis Leveson Bletchley.

King Edward left Paris at 7:10 o'clock for Madrid, where he will join Queen Alexandra on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert. The effect of the visit appears to be to strengthen in the determination to proceed with France's policy in Morocco in accordance with the Anglo-French agreement, as the visit is construed as a timely expression from the emperors of that agreement.

Rosen Goes to Morocco.

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, April 6.—The report of the appointment of Dr. Fritz Rosen, German minister to Morocco, as German minister to Morocco in succession to the deceased Baron von Moltzenberg, has been confirmed.

Dr. Rosen is reported to know more of the present day Oriental civilizations than any living German. He is also personally sympathetic to Orientals and his easy and complete acquaintance with the Arabic tongue and manners is expected to make him personally the most influential foreign diplomat in Morocco.

There is every indication that Germany designs to hold on tenaciously to her policy towards Morocco.

BREWERS WANT SHIP CHRISTENED WITH BEER

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, April 6.—The announcement to-day that Mayor Wells had selected Miss Gladys Bryant Smith to christen the United States cruiser St. Louis, to be launched at Philadelphia May 6th, was followed by expressions from St. Louis brewers of a wish that the cruiser be christened with beer instead of the customary champagne. The brewers in statement to-day declared that beer brewing is one of the typical industries of St. Louis, and that beer, therefore, should be used on the occasion of the cruiser's christening.

Worry Goes To The Stomach

Tears down the little Telegraph Lines that Operate and control the Digestive Processes.

How To Repair These Telegraph Lines

I will gladly give any Stomach Sufferer a Full Dollar's Worth of my Remedy Free to Try.

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any stomach sufferer who does not know my remedy has a full dollar's worth free, if he merely writes and asks. I will gladly make this liberal offer to anyone who writes to me. I am not an ordinary stomach remedy. It does not, indeed, treat the stomach itself. It goes beyond that. It treats the nerves that control and operate the stomach. The nerves that wear out and break down, and cause all the trouble that is known as "nervous indigestion." It is really only a symptom that there is a serious nerve trouble inside. That is why ordinary remedies fail. That is why my remedy succeeds. That is why I can afford to make this offer.

Yet do not misunderstand me when I say "nerves." I do not mean the nerves you ordinarily think about. I mean the automatic stomach nerves which your mind has no control. I have not the space here to explain to you how the nerves control the stomach, or how they may be stabilized and restored. When you write I will send you a book which will make these points clear. But this much is certain—stomach troubles cause all forms of stomach trouble—indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. No stomach medicine will cure these ailments. Only nerve treatment will do that. No other remedy than Dr. Shoop's Restorative even claims to reach these nerves.

What ails the stomach nerves? Worry, probably. Mental anguish destroys them. Without which the stomach has no more self-control than a spoon. Overwork, too, is a regular trouble maker. It is interesting to note that Dr. Shoop's Restorative will do it. Disposition will do it. But the effect is the same—stomach nerves become impaired. I know a way to rebuild their strength—to restore their vigor. It is a remedy which took thirty years of my life to perfect—a remedy which is now known in more than fifty thousand homes—Dr. Shoop's Restorative.

If you have stomach trouble and have never tried my remedy, write to me and I will send you an order on your druggist which he will accept as gladly as he would accept a dollar. He will send you a bottle of my Restorative and a small bottle of my prescription, and he will send the bill to me. This offer is made only to strangers, and it is open until the first of May. After that time, I will not be able to do it. I ask you to do it to write to me to-day.

For a free order for Book 1 on Dyspepsia, a full dollar bottle of Book 2 on the Heart, must address Dr. Shoop's Restorative, Dr. Shoop, Box 1, 288, Book 3 for Women. Write to Dr. Shoop, Box 1, 288, Book 3 for Men, which book you want. Book 4 on Rheumatism.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

FATHER FOUND DEAD BODIES OF CHILDREN

Four Persons Killed by Illuminating Gas in Tenement House.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 6.—Four persons were killed by illuminating gas to-day in a tenement house in the upper East-side. The bodies of the four were found at 121 East 10th St. The victims were Mary Rogers, 12; Helen Clark, 12; Clara Clark, 10; and Elizabeth Clark, 8.

Their bodies were found by the father of the three children, Samuel Clark, a truck driver, who, with his wife and young son, occupied an adjoining room. When Clark awoke he smelled gas and traced it to the next room, where he found his three children and the woman, a friend of the family, dead. The father had escaped from a defective gas stove.

SUSPECT PERJURY IN BEEF INQUIRY

Said That Grand Jury Is Preparing to Indict Number of Witnesses.

FEDERAL OFFICERS AT WORK

Secret Service Men Trying to Secure Evidence to Sustain Charges.

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, April 6.—Preparations are being made, it is said, by the Federal grand jury investigating the so-called beef trust to indict certain witnesses who have appeared before the inquisitorial body, on charges of perjury and for interference with other witnesses. Evidence tending toward positive information that some of the prominent witnesses had committed perjury on the witness stand before the jury, is said to have been produced to-day and was sent to Springfield for Federal Judge Humphrey to come to Chicago. The jury was impeached by Judge Humphrey and it is asserted that he was summoned for advice concerning the proposed perjury charges. The jury to-day remained in session until almost 6 o'clock and it is thought that some other important development may be expected within a short time.

Special efforts have been made, in the last few days, it is said, by Federal officers to secure evidence that a number of important witnesses before the jury have not been truthful in testifying. Secret service men have been working along these lines and other witnesses have been questioned regarding the testimony of previous witnesses. Fifteen subpoenas were issued to-day for additional Chicago witnesses whose names have been secured by secret service men. These witnesses, it is asserted, have been summoned in connection with the supposed attempt to show that perjury has been committed.

FIGHTING TO KEEP GIRL OUT OF PENITENTIARY

(By Associated Press.)

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., April 6.—The case of Inga Hansen, the former Salvation Army girl, who was recently sentenced to the penitentiary from Chicago on conviction of perjury, came before the State Senate to-day.

A resolution which asks Governor Deussen to investigate the case was presented by Senator Judd and was made a special order for next Tuesday morning.

Miss Hansen's conviction for perjury was the outgrowth of a suit for $50,000 damages brought by her against the Chicago City Railway Company. Miss Hansen alleged that in a street car accident she received injuries that deprived her of sight and speech and the use of her limbs. She claimed that her recovery was a miracle wrought by prayer.

The contention of the street car company is that Miss Hansen's injuries were only pretended for the sake of aiding her damage suit.

Senator Judd's resolution asserts that she is actually paralyzed and helpless.

AN ENGLISH COMEDY THE BILL TO-NIGHT

Cousin Kate at Academy—Arizona at Bijou Next Week.

One of the cleverest scenes in "Cousin Kate," the English comedy from the Hudson Theatre, New York, which is to be seen at the Academy to-night, is that in the cottage with Kate Curtis lies to furnish it and make it homelike for the honeymoon of her cousin, Amy, and the latter's fiancé, Heath Desmond. While spinster Kate is engaged in this interesting, but slightly unsatisfactory, occupation, enters the handsome stranger who has made her acquaintance on a railway train the day previous and with whom she has fallen desperately in love.

The stranger is hard hit, too, as his every action shows, and when in tones of emotion, he tells his love and asks her hand, Kate, unconventional to the finger-tips, accepts him. Just at the crisis of emotion, Cousin Amy appears and immediately recognizes the fascinating stranger as her own future husband. The young man, whose marriage with Amy, Cousin Kate has been preparing the love-nest.
